BRYAN ABROAD:
COSTA RICA - SUMMER 2017

There will be daily visits to both area businesses and governmental organizations that are part of the Costa Rica business environment. Our visits will focus on the supply chain and ethical and sustainable operations of a variety of Costa Rica firms, both international and local.

The San Jose hotel and host families in Monteverde will be very comfortable environments to learn and understand the business, culture and customs of Costa Rica and their people. Travel support may be available to qualified students; email Dr. Taube.

Among the Activities Included in This Course

• Four weeks of online instruction followed by two weeks in Costa Rica with visits to firms to discuss Supply Chain Management practices
• Ethical and Sustainable practices will be evaluated at Manufacturing, Distribution, and Entrepreneurial firms
• Service-Learning Sustainability and Ecotourism project will be done during our stay in the Monteverde Rain Forest
• Multiple opportunities for cultural learning and discussion with experts on Latino and Costa Rican cultures
• Weekend tour to Pacific coast with nature tour, snorkeling opportunity, and time to relax
• Other cultural activities include exploration of coffee industry, cruise to Tortuga Island, and eco-tourism opportunities including discussions with major hotels

STUDY TOUR WITH SCM 302 & PHI 361:
SUPPLY CHAIN AND ETHICAL MANAGEMENT IN COSTA RICA
JUNE 9 - JUNE 23, 2017

Costa Rica is a nation of 4.5 million culturally diverse people and is the second oldest democracy in the hemisphere. Costa Rica hosts some of the most beautiful beaches and rainforests in the entire world. This rich land produces world-famous delicacies that can only be appreciated through experience.

Because of its surging economy, Costa Rica hosts some of the most advantageous business opportunities in the world.
