ETHICAL ISSUES IN ENTREPRENEURSHIP

New Course Offered in Spring 2014
MWF 9:00 - 9:50 a.m.
Engage the Business Community as an Ethics Consultant via the Piedmont Business Ethics Award

PHI 362 Ethical Issues in Entrepreneurship (3:3)
Application of ethical theory to global entrepreneurship; including entrepreneur’s role in ethical actions, economic justice, responsibility, self and government regulation, conflict of interest, investment policy, advertising, and environmental responsibility.

Cross Listed Course Same as ENT 362.
GE Core: GPR, GE Marker: GN
Students may not receive credit for both PHI 361 and PHI 362.

Wade Maki
w_maki@uncg.edu