

WILL QUEEN

203 Wilson St. ◊ Greensboro, NC 27401

(919)-924-8866 ◊ jwqueen@uncg.edu

EDUCATION

University of North Carolina at Greensboro

January 2019 - Present

PhD in Economics

University of North Carolina at Greensboro

August 2017 - December 2018

Masters of Arts in Applied Economics

GPA: 3.89

Appalachian State University

August 2013 - May 2017

Bachelor of Arts in Regional Economic Development

Economics and Math GPA: 3.84

Minor in Mathematics

TECHNICAL STRENGTHS

Programming Languages

SAS, R, RShiny, MATLAB, Stata

Software & Tools

LaTeX, Excel, Word

RESEARCH GRANTS AND AWARDS

UNCG Green Fund

May 2018 - August 2018

$3,780

- Used energy meter data from campus buildings to show how OLS can be used to improve energy management.
- Produced a paper titled "Modeling Energy Consumption in Campus Buildings: Employing Meter Data and Regression Analysis to Aide University Management Practices."

UNCG Green Fund

May 2018 - August 2018

$4,158

- Employed cost-benefit techniques to analyze the costs of various approaches to LED retrofitting.
- Produced a report titled "An Analysis of the Costs of LED Retrofitting Projects"
- Supervised an undergraduate to take lighting inventory of relevant campus buildings.

WORKING PROJECTS

Measuring the ROI of HFW Services in North Carolina

August 2018 - Present

Research Assistant for Dr. Jeremy Bray

- Collecting, cleaning, and analyzing sensitive data to evaluate the return on investment of pilot mental health programs in North Carolina.

FELLOWSHIPS AND AWARDS

Betty Conley Brooks and Robert Charles Brooks Masters Fellowship in

Economics (2018 - 2019)

Beta Gamma Sigma (2018 - Present)

Spartan Graduate Scholar (2018 - 2019)

Spartan Graduate Scholar (2017 - 2018)

Minerva Grant (2017 – 2018)

EXTRA-CIRRUCULAR

Senator for the Graduate Student Association at UNCG (August 2018 - Present).

Southern Economic Association Member and Conference Attendee (2018-2019)

Appalachian Student Ambassador (Feb 2014 - May 2017).

Presenter at the Global Leadership Summit in Bloemfontein, South Africa (July 2015).